Email us the above information, and once we receive your information, we will calculate the shipping and handling costs, and then Email the total costs to you. At that time, if the total cost is agreeable to you, send us a return Email with the last 4 digits of your card, and we will process your order request. For PayPal transactions, we will create a PayPal invoice and send it to your Email address. When PayPal notifies us that the invoice has been paid, we will ship your order. In all cases, after the product has been shipped, we will send an Email with the shipment tracking number. All transactions will be in USD.
